

Steven Paget is the Sr. Vice President of Sales at International Freight Transport.

Steven is Operationally trained in freight forwarding geared towards business development with over 25 years of experience.

Steven's responsibilities include establishing, maintaining, and expanding relationships with key business partners. Attending various training sessions on new technology geared toward the industry. Overseeing the salesforce with training and growth development.

Steven's hobbies outside of work include tennis, boxing, motorcycle riding, and long walks with his dog Elsa Belsa.