

H. Delano Roosevelt
Director, International Investor Relations

H. Delano Roosevelt serves as Director of International Investor Relations at Ranchland Capital Partners. He brings over three decades of leadership across global business development, diplomatic engagement, and cross-border investment initiatives spanning the United States, Europe, and the Gulf Region.

Prior to joining RCP, Delano served as President and CEO of the U.S.–Saudi Business Council, where he led the organization’s transformation into a results-driven platform for facilitating bilateral commercial partnerships. His previous roles include Director of New Business Development at the Reza Investment Group and Director of Governmental Relations for Boeing’s Sea Launch Program, where he negotiated with government entities across the South Pacific.

Delano also brings a deep background in public service, having served as a Long Beach (CA) City Councilmember, where he led environmental, public safety, and intergovernmental policy initiatives. He has held leadership positions on the National Council on U.S.–Arab Relations, the Middle East Council of American Chambers of Commerce, and the FDR Warm Springs Institute for Rehabilitation.

A grandson of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt—and a direct descendant of President Theodore Roosevelt—Delano continues a family tradition of international engagement and conservation. Based in California, he focuses on developing strategic relationships and supporting communication with RCP’s global investor network.