

Sean Puckett, CFA, CAIA
Managing Partner | Investments

Sean Puckett is a Managing Partner at Ranchland Capital Partners, co-founding the firm with Todd Graham in 2023. As a Principal of the firm, Sean leads the firm's efforts for investments and ongoing portfolio management.

Prior to co-founding RCP, Sean was the Chief Investment Officer (CIO) of NextGen Private Wealth, an SEC-Registered Investment Advisor that provided consulting and Outsourced CIO services to firms focused on High and Ultra-High Net Worth individual clients, developing custom public and private asset allocation and trading strategies on over $1.2 billion in AUM. During this time, Sean also co-launched a long/short Exchange Traded Fund on CBOE and served on the Investment Committee of Janiczek Wealth Management, a $1B RIA located in Denver, CO.

Earlier, Sean served as CIO at Silverhawk Private Wealth, a Scottsdale-based Registered Investment Advisor. Here, he managed the investment division of the firm which spanned both public and alternative investments, overseeing 350 households and roughly $250 million in AUM. He also provided due diligence oversight on all private placements, which included venture capital funds, hedge funds, multi-family real estate funds, DST 1031 exchanges, and Qualified Opportunity Zone Funds.

Before Silverhawk, Sean was a National Bank Regulator at the US Treasury, working primarily in Capital Market Exams for small to mid-sized institutions with Bank Assets between $5 and $50 billion.
